

Awards for companies

Staff Reporter

BANGALORE: Companies that promote business co-operation between India and the United States will now be recognised with the Southern Star Awards, launched by the Indo American Chambers of Commerce (IACC) here on Saturday.

Infotech Enterprises, Altair Engineering India and Aarjay International were among the three companies chosen by the South India Council of IACC for these awards. Vasanth Kini, Regional President (South India) of IACC said: "The awards were instituted for companies from India and USA who struck common ground."

US Consul General, Hyderabad, Katherine Dhanani and Political Economic Advisor at the US Consulate of Chennai, Maxwell Hamilton were present.